

FAQs: Tuition & Fees 2021

Tuition and Fees: In-state students and out-of-state students pay in-state tuition rates while participating on the Oxford Program. Please note that out-of-state tuition will initially be charged out-of-state tuition, and shortly after a study abroad waiver will post as a credit in order to bring out-of-state students to the in-state tuition rate. All students are required to pay the technology fee and the USG fee; these fees are charged by GT and not by the Oxford Program. Tuition is charged directly by the Bursar; the program does not place tuition charges on students' accounts.

1. Will the HOPE/Zell Miller scholarships cover my tuition and fees on the Oxford Program?
  - a. The HOPE/Zell Miller scholarships work the exact same way on the Oxford Program as they do for you here on campus in Atlanta. Therefore, HOPE/Zell will cover whatever it covers for you here on campus at GT in Atlanta.

2. Can financial aid help cover the cost of tuition?
  - a. Yes, this is possible however it depends on what type of aid and/or scholarships you receive. The total cost of attendance for a semester spent on the Oxford Program is sent to the Financial Aid Office in January each year; the Financial Aid Office will use the estimated cost of attendance for a semester on the Oxford Program to calculate your summer aid accordingly. Please check with the Financial Aid Office for specific information. Aaron Gamboa (aaron.gamboa@finaid.gatech.edu) is a great contact in the Financial Aid Office; he is very familiar with aid/scholarships and how they apply to various opportunities abroad.

All payments must be made on the finalized date, prior to your departure. Failure to do so may result in your participation on the Oxford Program being canceled.
